SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD MISSED LAST CAR; Love's Cause Advanced by Vexa-

Ill and Suffering, Bertie Masterson Tires of Life, and Ends Her Troubles With a Draught of Carbolic Acid.

Miss Bertie Masterson, aged 17, daughter of Thomas Masterson, a foreman at the glass works, committed suicide yesterday by swallowing a large dose of carpolic acid. The girl had been in delicate heelth for some time and had frequently informed her parents and friends that she was tired of life, and did not care whether she died or not. on her movements by her father and mother, but she cluded them yesterday and took her life before she could be prevented. Early in the afternoon, while her mother was in another portion of the house, the girl sprang from the front door and hurried across a lot in the direction of Lake Constance, near the glass works. Her mother missed her in a few moments and calling another lady to her home they started in pursuit of the fleeling girl.

home they started in pursuit of the fleeing gir!

After a hunt of nearly half an hour
Mrs. Masterson found the body of her daughter lying under a clump of bushes near the little lake. The poor soman bore up for a moment, but before she could raise the form of her daughter from the spot she fell over in a faint.

Neighbors were called and the girl's body was finally removed to the Masterson home. At the inquest all the evidence clearly showed that the girl had taken carbolic acid, and a verdict of sulcide was rendered.

AGED COUPLE TO RENEW MARRIAGE VOWS AT ALTAR.

Two Grandchildren to Accou Them to Chancel Rail at To-Day's Nuptial Mass.

Surrounded by several hundred relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Gundlach, one of the wealthlest couples in St. Clair County, will at 8 o'clock this evening renew their marriage vow at St. Peter's Cathedral in Belleville. A spe-

Peter's Cathedral in Belleville. A special high mass will be celebrated for them by the Reverend Father Hagen, Chancellor of the Belleville Diocrse.

The aged couple will be accompanied to the altar by two grandchildren. This afternoon the auspicious event will be celebrated at Liederkranz Hall with a reception and supper. Invitations have been issued to 500, and it is expected that this number will be present. A programme of music and addresses will be rendered.

Mr. Gundlach, who is 74 years of age, has been a resident of St. Clair County for more than half a century. His wife is several years his junior. Beveral children were born to the union. The celebration will be one of the most elaborate ever held in Belleville.

TO RAISE FUND FOR OPERA-HOUSE. Belleville Commercial Club Will Sponsor Movement to Build Playhouse.

The Belleville Commercial Club has decided to raise $5.000 to sesist in making the opera-house project a success. Recently Henry J. Fink and others started a movement to remodel the Hinckley Mill-building on South Spring street into a modern theater.

The club was asked to smist in the movement, and it has decided to sell 1.00 tickets at $5 for the first night's performance to raise the fund.

With this amount the men prometing the enterprise will be able to start the same was an and was very severer; the first new and any control of the head. In the full modern than the first new and any control of the head. In the full modern than th

The State finished its case early in the afternoon and the attorneys asked for a night session to finish to-day.

Judge Holler readily consented to the request and reopened court last evening soon after supper. Clifford Moore, 9 years old, of Belleville, and Elmer J. Kelley, E., of East St. Louis, were arrested in Belleville while trying to hire a horse and bugsy at the Gundlach & Co. Livery Company.

After being closery questioned at the police station Moore aumitted that he took some money from a cupboard at his home. He said that he met Kelley while taking a ride on an electric car. The boys are being held. It is thought that Kelley is a runaway from East St. Louis.

Charged With Stenling Watch. Clair County juil in Belleville under bond of $26 charged with stealing a gold watch from Josepa Arberie. The theft would not have been traced to Nelson, it is said, but for the finding of a pawn ticket bearing his name and showing that he had pawned a watch in St. Louis. Detective Gust Klaram visited the pawnshop and precovered the watch. Nelson was arrested. He waived his preliminary hearing before Justice Wangelin and was bound over to the Grand Jury.

Martmann-Guenta Wedding. The marriage of Miss Heien Guents of Belleville and Bootor Bernhard Hartmann of Chicago, ill, took place has night at the home of the bride's mother. Mrs. Mars Guentz of No. 2138 South Charles street. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend William M. Gardner of the Flist Prestyterian Church, and was witnessed by relatives and friends. The young couple will reside in Chicago.

DECIDED TO MARRY

tious Happening Which Showed Couple Their Affinities. Miss Gertrude Durham, aged 30, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Durham of 130 Kansas avenue, East St. Louis, and William B. Ruffin, aged 22, of St. Louis, were married yesterday at Belleville. The young couple knew each other but a short time, and it is believed that the failure of the street cars to make proper connections was the acute cause of the marriage.

The young folks went out to Creve Coour The young folks went out to Creve Coeur Lake last Sunday and, paying more attention to the pleasure which they were having than to the schedule or timetable of the street cara missed the last car bound for St. Louis. They awaited the coming of morning, when the first car would make the trip, but during that time Mr. Ruffin learned to love the young woman to such an extent that he asked her to become his wife.

It was such a peculiar situation, and the affair bordered to such an extent on the remaintic that, the bride says, she was compelled to answer in the affarmative. It was then planned that they go to Belleville without the knowledge of the young woman's parents and set married. The knot was tied by Judge W. E. Ward.

ONE CRIMINAL CASE ON DOCKET. Walter Woods Will Be Tried on

was indicted on a charge of stealing fifty bushels of grain from a car in the Illinois Central Railway yards, but left the city, it is alleged, during the session of the Grand Jury in ISC.

The Sheriff and the police have endeavored to trace him ever since, but falled until yesterday. Officer Fitts found the man in one of the railroad yards, where he had been working for several weeks. Som after Woods's escape the trial of criminal cases in the City Court was suspended and no Grand Juries have been called. There will be none at the next term and, consequently, Woods will have the whole criminal docket to himself.

Stockman Pinned Under Mount-Datfere Broken Log and Sprained

John S. Bratton, the noted East Side horseman, while exercising a horse ves-terday was thrown and seriously injured. Mr. Bratton was exercising the horse at the National Stock Yards when the ani-mal slipped and threw the rider. Mr. Bratton was pinned under the animal and austained a fracture of the left leg and a aprained ankle.

He was taken to his home, where Doctor Edgar Little attended him. His injuries will confine him to the house for several weeks.

Charged With Burglary. John Slaten, alias John Smith, who was shot by Detective Yaul at Allen's Grove, shot by Detective Taul at Allen's Grove, last Sunday, will be taken to Michigan City, Neb., where, it is claimed, he is charged with burgiary. Slaten was not badly injured by the builet, and while awaiting recovery he was notified that he would be expected to leave for Nebraska, instead of attempting to prosecute Yaul for the shooting. Slaten will not say whether he is guilty of the charge of burgiary or not.
